

Maps of Activities / tasks for Coach of beginner players (ITN 6 - 10)

The coach of beginner - intermediate tennis players is defined as a coach who is able to effectively and safely coach players of this level of play on his own and may work under supervision reporting to more qualified coaches and, if needed, supervise assistant coaches.
For further reference, the competencies defined for the course of coach of beginner - intermediate tennis players fall into the "coach" category of the Long-term coach development model.

Plan	Training	Competition	Management	Education
	Plan or design a lesson and series of lessons (cycle) for a group or an individual player with the adequate progression of drills and activities	Plan competition adapted to the players level	Establish a basic development/promotion plan for the tennis organisation.	Plan educational activities for players and parents.
	Apply principles of learner centred coaching.	Demonstrate understanding of the rules of tennis with special emphasis on rules when playing without the chair umpire.
		Use different scoring systems for beginner/intermediate players.
Organize	Training	Competition	Management	Education
	Organises equipment and courts for sessions.	Select games and formats adapted to the players	Organises the meeting with club staff team.	Organises educational activities for players and parents.
	Divides the players into groups.	Prepare the equipment for a competition(s) for a group or an individual player.
		Prepare the facilities for a competition(s) for a group or an individual player.
		Assign the players to groups/teams/matches according to the selected competition format.
Conduct	Training	Competition	Management	Education
	Ensure safety throughout the lesson	Ensure safety throughout the competition	Implementing the projects in the organisation.	Educates parents about the rules and their role in player development.
	Ensure that the players uses the right equipment	Ensure the adequate communication to the group or an individual throughout the competition	Ensures communication with club officials.	Educates players (how to behave, fair play, good values...)
	Conducts the lesson (warm-up, main part, cool down)	Ensure that the players have the right behaviour, respect the rules and tennis etiquette	Manage financial aspects of the programme.	Teach players to respect the rules.
	Explains the goals of the lesson	Ensure safety throughout the competition
	Ensure the adequate communication to the group or an individual throughout the lesson	Act as team representative
	Applied teaching methods appropriate for the developmental age, stage of skill development and individual needs of beginner/intermediate players.
	Develop technical, tactical, motor and mental skills of beginner an intermediate players
Facilitate skill development through employing appropriate progressions and regressions.
Evaluate	Training	Competition	Management	Education
	Review the activity effectiveness in relation to aims and objectives.	Assesses the player's performance in competition	Use a basic assessment tool to evaluate the programme.	Evaluate players behaviour and respecting the rules during training and competition.
	Reviewing the sessions with all parties involved		Explain and evaluate own coaching performance by identifying own strengths and weaknesses.
			Evaluate financial aspects of the programme.	